Attach any documentary evidence you wish to submit.

In an August 23, 2021 video posted on YouTube, Mike Lindell, the CEO of the My Pillow Company, says he flew Mesa County Clerk Tina Peters on his private plane [to a "Cyber Symposium" seminar he put on in South Dakota]: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=UfpRuri0s4k&t=68s>

News articles report that Lindell is providing Peters with housing in "safe houses" and "hotels":

Presumably Lindell is also providing Peters with meals while she is hiding from state from authorities.

Description of acts or things complained of (continued):

On August 22, 2021, the Grand Junction Daily Sentinel reported that Clerk Peters used taxpayer dollars to purchase an airline ticket to Lindell's seminar in South Dakota. The seminar was an election conspiracy event at which Peters shared information about Mesa County's voting equipment:

At 58:30 in the following hour-long video, Lindell tells Peters "Sorry your hotel was broken into. We'll get you to a better place and get you some protection." This infers he is paying for her housing and security. <https://lindelltv.com/mike-lindell-interviews-mesa-county-clerk-tina-peters-on-the-raid-of-her-office/>

The Colorado Constitution's Article XXIX - Ethics in government, states no local government official "shall solicit, accept or receive any gift or other thing of value having either a fair market value or aggregate actual cost greater than fifty dollars ($50) in any calendar year, including but not limited to, gifts, loans, rewards, promises or negotiations of future employment, favors or services, honoraria, travel, entertainment, or special discounts, from a person, without the person receiving lawful consideration of equal or greater value in return from the public officer, member of the general assembly, local government official, or government employee who solicited, accepted or received the gift or other thing of value."

It appears that Mesa County Clerk Tina Peters has accepted, and is continuing to accept thousands of dollars worth of services, travel, security and favors from Mr. Lindell in violation of the Colorado Constitution.

Advisement regarding remedies and penalties: Pursuant to Colo. Const. art. XXIX, § 6, a covered individual found to have breached the public trust for private gain is liable for double the amount of the financial equivalent of any benefits obtained by such actions. The manner of recovery and additional penalties may be provided by law. The Commission does not assess criminal penalties, award injunctive relief, or award damages to complainants.

I hereby acknowledge that the facts presented herein are true to the best of my knowledge, and I will cooperate in the process regarding this complaint and will appear at any proceeding of the Independent Ethics Commission if the complaint is scheduled for a hearing.

Dear Mr. Ioannides,

Is it possible to augment my ethics complaint No. 21-18 against Mesa County Clerk Tina Peters with additional information just published in the Washington Post today at 10:53 a.m. Eastern Time?

I'd like to submit the following passage from an article about Tina Peters in today's Post, which indicates she has accepted financial assistance from Mike Lindell (the "My Pillow Guy") to pay her legal fees:

"Lindell told The Post that in recent weeks he has paid for Peters's lodging, security and lawyers. He hopes that other elections officials will come forward to join the fight."

I am also concerned about her personal fundraising site that seeks to gather donations toward her legal fees: <https://standwithtina.org/>, which may violate Colorado ethics rules.
